Summary

These Terms and Conditions are the ones that we will refer to in the unlikely event of a dispute with our customers that we cannot resolve between us. At Parallel though we do believe that it would be really unsatisfactory to have to do that. We want to provide the highest levels of service to our customers who we value highly. We have lifted some of the key points out of the more formal T's and C's below so you can see what we provide and under what terms, think of this first section as the BIG PRINT and the later numbered sections as the small print.
