PARALLEL
PROJECT TRAINING

Applied Project Leadership

Public course launching
14th January 2027

About The Course

Take the next step from delivering projects to leading people. Our new programme helps experienced project professionals develop the confidence, judgement and leadership skills to guide teams to success.

Who is it for?

Experienced project professionals taking on more complex projects and greater responsibility for leading project teams

What will you gain?

- Lead with confidence and self-awareness, maintaining constructive behaviours and sound judgement under pressure.
- Make timely, well-reasoned decisions when faced with uncertainty, incomplete evidence and competing priorities.
- Align projects with organisational strategy by focusing delivery on purpose, intended benefits and long-term value.
- Build trust and influence across organisational boundaries, creating psychologically safe, accountable and high-performing teams.
- Apply systems and commercial thinking, using data and AI critically while retaining human judgement, context and accountability.

PARALLEL

Applied Project Leadership

Public course launching
14th January 2027

How is the course delivered?

The course is delivered through five days of residential, face-to-face learning, split across two workshops. Participants will work through realistic project scenarios, practical exercises and peer learning, supported by one-to-one coaching and personal feedback. Between workshops, they will apply their learning to real workplace challenges, helping turn new leadership skills into practical behaviours they can use on their projects.

Be a part of the Parallel Leadership Network

Learn alongside a small, carefully selected cohort and become part of an exclusive community of leaders from different industries. Build connections, exchange ideas and support one another's development throughout the programme and beyond.

When & Where?

January - April 2027
14th January: Online orientation
1st-3th February & 4th-5th March: Residential workshops at Ashorne Hill, Warwickshire
13 April: Final workshop
